BOMBARDING BEGUN.

Active Hostilities on the Island of Crete.

FOREIGN VESSELS TAKE A PART.

Greek Camp Shelled and Compelled to Lower Their Flag—Fighting Has Occurred at Several Other Places—Greece's Policy Will Be Defensive by Land, but Aggressive by Sea.—Latest War News.

CANEA, Feb. 22.—The foreign admirals warned Colonel Vassos, the commander of the Greek forces on the island of Crete, of their intention to attack his troops with four men-of-war anchored off his camp, Agiol Theodoroi, should he attempt to advance to the interior of the island. The warning seems to have had no effect, for at 4:30 yesterday afternoon signals were made to her majesty's ships Dryad, Harrier and Revenge, together with one Italian, one German and one Russian ship to open fire on the Cretan position, where the Greek flag was hoisted some days ago. The British ships fired 40 and the foreign ships 30 shells at the village and ruined the house held by the Cretans. The flag was soon lowered and the order 'cease fire' sounded after 10 minutes. Thereupon the flag was rehoisted. The rocks around were crowded with Cretans.

The Turks, encouraged by the fleets, now opened a lively fusillade while the Cretans were removing the wounded. The Cretans had not replied during the whole performance. It was a somewhat melancholy and degrading spectacle.

Later reports are to the effect that the English men-of-war opened the bombardment. The others followed. The Kaiserin Augusta fired Melinite shells. The commander of the Greek man-of-war Hydra, cleared for action in case the necessity should arise. Some shells fell in the town of Canea raising clouds of dust. It is rumored that several persons were killed and wounded. When firing ceased the Greek flag was still flying over the insurgents' camp.

An engagement has occurred just above the village of Monrries, between the insurgents and a Turkish band. British torpedo boats have captured and brought to this port the small Greek steamer Lanrium, which was carrying victuals and tents for the insurgents.

The forts fired two rounds of blank cartridges Sunday at the Greek gunboat Penens. A Turkish frigate also discharged blank shots at the Greeks. The Greek gunboat Penens quickly replied to the blank shots fired by the Turkish frigate. The frigate then withdrew from the scene of operations.

Smart firing was heard Sunday in the eastward. The reply of the Turks was feeble and it was obvious that they must abandon their positions if pressed. Their gun practice from the redoubt on the outer lines was indistinct. The chief Cretan position was a hamlet on a ridge of hills, 4,000 yards from the flagship.

GREAT DEMONSTRATION IN ATHENS

Union of Crete With Greece Almost Universally Demanded.

ATHENS, Feb. 22.—Over 40,000 persons participated in a demonstration Sunday afternoon on University square in favor of the union of Crete with Greece. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed. An address was adopted, declaring that the king and people were ready for any sacrifices of blood and treasure to bring the present Cretan policy to successful issue. The crowd then marched to the palace and a deputation presented the address to the king. Tremendous cheering followed.

His majesty, King George, Crown Prince Constantine, Duke of Sparta and other members of the royal family, occupied places on the balcony. The king addressed the crowd as follows:

"You are executing the true mandate of the Hellenic people. I thank you for this imposing display of your feelings. May God protect our beloved country and strengthen our common efforts. Long live the Hellenic nation."

Seven hundred Greek soldiers, with artillery, have landed near Kissoto. A Turkish transport, accompanied by a British torpedo boat, is engaged in conveying 1,600 troops from Candia to Canea.

Troops from all parts of Greece are hurrying to the Turkish frontier. The policy of Greece will be defensive by land, but aggressive by sea.

DESCRIPTION OF A BATTLE.

How the Cretans Bombarded and Captured the Fort of Voukolles.

ATHENS, Feb. 22.—The night that Fort Voukolles fell Colonel Vassos learned that the Turkish garrison from Canea was advancing to succor the defeated Turks. He dispatched a body of insurgents to meet them and speedily followed himself with his troops. In the plain off Livadia 1,500 Turks and 2,500 Turkish Cretans with three guns engaged in battle. The Cretan insurgents and the Greek troops deployed, and after 90 minutes' fighting swept the plain, forcing the Turks to take refuge in Canea. Colonel Vassos burned the fortified barracks at Livadia and the Aghia blockhouse. The Greeks lost four sub-lieutenants killed and 20 officers and men wounded. The Turkish losses are unknown. In obedience to the orders of the King of Greece, Colonel Vassos recalled the troops to Platanina.

The Cretans suffered heavily by their own fault. They disregarded an order to withhold musketry fire until the work of the artillery had been completed. They wasted 50,000 cartridges and lost 30 men, maintaining a furious and foolish fire, and advancing to within 100 yards of the redoubts, while the Turks fired splendidly, wasting few bullets. The Cretans were obliged to send to Platanina for more ammunition, which arrived on Thursday night with four guns. The Cretans at this time surrounding the fort disobeyed orders and dispersed in search of food, the Turks profiting by the position evacuated by the Cretans.

On Friday morning, when the guns had been placed in position and they were about to resume bombarding, the troops were surprised to see the Cretans plant a flag upon the deserted fort. Thirty-two dead Turks were found inside the fortifications which were blown up by dynamite. The Greek troops were all young men. Never before had they been under fire and they displayed coolness, courage and enthusiasm. The Greeks took 10 Turkish soldiers prisoners.

RUSSIA BACKING GREECE.

Dispatches That Passed Between the Two Royal Families.

LONDON, Feb. 22.—A dispatch to The Daily Mail from Berlin says: The Queen of Greece recently sent a message to the czar, requesting his support for the national cause of Greece. The king also wired the czar, stating that he would declare war on Turkey and himself lead the army before he would yield to European coercion. Princess Maria of Greece also telegraphed her fiancé, Grand Duke George of Russia, that the action of the powers against Greece was infamous.

Another dispatch to The Daily Mail from Berlin says: "The Norddeutsche Allgemeinezeitung asserts that the Turkish cabinet last week decided to declare war on Greece, but the sultan vetoed the decision on account of the finances of Turkey."

Toro Up the Letter.

ROME, Feb. 22.—The Messagero asserts that the Turkish commander, Photiades Pasha, recently addressed a letter to Colonel Vassos, commanding the Greek troops in Crete, threatening to imprison him and afterward shoot him, and that Vassos contemptuously tore up the letter.

Mussulmans Arming.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 22.—A dispatch from Janina says that the authorities are arming the Mussulman population for a descent upon the Greek frontier near Arta.

Austria Alone Stands by Germany.

BERLIN, Feb. 22.—None of the powers except Austria has accepted the proposal of Emperor William to blockade Piræus.

HERE IS SOMETHING STARTLING.

A Little Girl Makes Its Appearance at the Harrison Home.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 22.—At 5:30 o'clock Sunday morning a baby girl weighing eight and a half pounds was born to Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, Dr. Henry Jameson being the attending physician. Mother and child are doing well.

Mrs. Lieutenant Parker of New York is with her sister, Mrs. Harrison. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison were married in St. Thomas church, New York, April 6, 1896. The ex-president is in his 64th year.

FLOOD IN KENTUCKY.

One Family of Three Drowned and Others Are Homeless.

MIDDLESBORO, Ky., Feb. 22.—A most disastrous flood has visited this valley, flooding two-thirds of the town. Sixty families have been forced from their homes. Cumberland avenue, the principal street of the city, is under water. Most of the stores are flooded. Several hundred people have to be fed by the citizens.

News from Tazewell states that James Chadwell, wife and children were drowned in Powell's river. The flood burst over the bank and caught them in their house which was swept away.

At West Pineville the Cumberland river broke over its banks, doing immense damage. Fifty families were forced from their homes. All the mines on the creek are flooded.

All the trestles and bridges on the Middlesboro railroad are washed away. The bridge on the Knoxville, Cumberland Gap and Louisville railroad is gone. No mail has arrived since Saturday. All the trains are waterbound. The estimated loss is $75,000.

It is a poor way to support the starving thousands by charity this winter. The real effort must be, after their immediate necessities are supplied, to find work whereby they may support themselves. Those labor organizations are exactly right, therefore, that oppose the begging of alms for the poor. Such begging, such bestowal, foster pauperism while they relieve it. Almsgiving is never the cure for poverty.

CUBAN WAR STATUS.

Actual State of Affairs From a Reliable Source.

WEYLER CONSIDERED A FAILURE.

Spain Can Never Win and the Insurgents Can Maintain Themselves For an Indefinite Period—Annexation With the United States Looked Upon as the Only Snecor.—Latest Cuban War News.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 22.—The first of a series of letters from Cuba by T. M. Rogers, who was sent to the island by The Globe-Democrat, with special instructions to get at the facts of the war, has been received. It bears Havana date, Feb. 19.

"There is but little reliable news in Havana. Outside of the soldiers on dress parade, there is little evidence of war. The local papers contain nothing of importance. Every suspicious letter that is sent out is inspected. No telegraphic news is allowed to be forwarded. The newspaper correspondents, to get anything, have to go out into the field and take their chances. The World correspondent went out to interview Gomez and find out what he thought of the proposed reforms in Cuba. He is now languishing in prison, but it is said that he is not badly treated.

"I have met and had a long talk with Thomas R. Danley, a representative of Harper's Weekly. He has been arrested a number of times and while in Moro castle took views of the prison cells with a pocket camera.

"There are some things you can now find out here with greater freedom than ever, and one is the general sentiment of the people. Even the Spaniards are disgusted with the general condition of affairs. They look upon Captain General Weyler as a complete failure. When they see the mountain of debt that is being piled up that will have to be met by the Cubans or Spanish property holders in Cuba, they tremble for the future. With devastated plantations and a general demoralization in business, the future of Cuba is dark indeed, whatever may be the outcome. There is a marked change in the feelings of the people toward the United States.

"You hear no expressions of hatred against our citizens. Even many Spaniards will now quietly tell you that the only solution is annexation. In that case they expect the immense war debt would be assumed by our government, and then Cuba would march on to prosperity.

"There is no question as to the feeling of the native population. The advent of the insurgents in Havana would be hailed with the greatest delight. The Spanish government does not trust them. There are comparatively few Cubans in the Spanish army. Out of the 200,000 soldiers sent here from Spain about 10,000 are now in Havana. A large number of these are mere boys, and there are among them men on the shady side of life. Those here on dress parade present a creditable appearance, but those I have seen coming in from the country districts show every evidence of having had a hard time.

"I had a talk with two proprietors of plantations in the insurgent district. The last battle about Santa Clara, where General Weyler is supposed to be in command, took place a few days ago on one of these plantations. The proprietor started out yesterday morning to see what there was left. He did not expect to find much. This proprietor told me that before the advent of the Spanish troops he had no trouble. But now they have cleaned out everything. He started out, also, in the rear of the Spanish army to survey the ruins and see what can be done about putting in a crop. He had 400 laborers employed.

"General Weyler claims he has fortified the provinces immediately about Havana, commencing on the west. He formed a line across the island, and commenced to drive the insurgents eastward with all the forces at his command. But there are more than 6,000 insurgents in this western province now, and as the army advances eastward the Cubans scatter and turn up in the rear. They are hanging about Havana now, and a small squad of soldiers is not safe on the outskirts of the city. Only a short time ago a number of officers were taken off a suburban train. One of them, a Cuban, was taken out and shot as a traitor. The rest were deprived of their arms and valuables and allowed to go.

"The general opinion now is that Spain will not be able to put down the rebellion. In this climate the insurgents can maintain themselves almost indefinitely. Sickness has set in among the soldiers, and a goodly number of the well ones are detailed to take care of the sick.

"Sickness exists not only among the troops, but there is a general epidemic on the island. A paper reported last evening that in one of the towns in an adjoining province there were not enough well people to take care of the sick. Six thousand smallpox cases are reported here in Havana. To get out of Havana now is a most difficult undertaking. The board of health of Florida has quarantined against Havana. All here have to be vaccinated by the United States surgeon. He has received an order to allow no one to leave the island for 12 days."

FAR FROM PACIFIED.

Many Victories For General Rivera's Troops in Pinar del Rio.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 22.—From reports received from Pinar del Rio section it is clearly seen that Weyler's idea of "pacification" is different from that of Americans. A letter to Colonel Corbo gives many details of various engagements in that section recently, in all of which the insurgents were successful.

Near Joreta Major P. Morales had a fight with San Martin's troops and defeated them badly after a two hours' fight. The Cuban machete charge drove the Spanish from the field in utter route, they leaving 125 dead on the field.

A few days after this the insurgents decoyed the Spaniards into a trap in Joreta swam and cut their rear guard into pieces and routed the squadron of 500 men, the Spaniards losing over 200 men.

In the woods of El Tovia was another disaster for the Spaniards, Colonel Lorente defeating Colonel Martin's detachment of 600 men and forcing him to retreat to San Juan Y Martinez with a heavy loss, leaving his dead on the field.

At Janta the Spaniards were driven into the town at night, the insurgents firing the huts and with cries of "Cuba Libre," charged upon the surprised and bewildered Spanish as they emerged from their huts. The Spaniards made a plucky fight, but the Cubans routed them after three hours' fighting. The insurgents secured 200 rifles and 1,500 rounds of ammunition. Their loss was less than 30, while the Spaniards acknowledged a loss of over 140.

General Rivera is the idol of his troops, and he absolutely controls the country. When the Spanish troops leave the garrisoned towns the Cubans harass them so badly that they are glad to retire to the protection of their intrenchments.

FOUGHT EIGHT HOURS.

Twelve Hundred Cubans Defeated Fifteen Hundred Spanish Troops.

KEY WEST, Fla., Feb. 22.—A report has reached here of rumors in Havana of a big fight in Santa Clara province last Tuesday between 1,500 Spaniards and 1,200 Cubans under Gomez, which lasted eight hours. The insurgents cut down the Spanish forces, first with artillery and then with the machete. The Spaniards fled for their lives in the greatest disorder.

The losses on both sides were heavy, the Spaniards losing the more men. The Cubans captured all the ammunition stores and guns, including four field pieces and quantities of small arms. No details can be had, nor can the name of the Spanish general engaged be learned.

AMERICANS IN DANGER.

Consul General Lee Has Asked For Warships to Be Sent to Cuba.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—A Jacksonville dispatch to The Herald is as follows:

Consul General Lee has requested in urgent terms that the government send warships to Cuba. The request is made, it is stated, because of the attitude of the Spanish authorities in Cuba in relation to the outrages upon American citizenship in the murder of Dr. Ricardo Ruiz in the prison at Guanabacoa.

It has been declared that the hapless American was done to death at the order of the commandant of Guanabacoa, Fondevila.

DEATH IN A HOTEL.

A Man Locked Up Suspicion of Knowing Something About It.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—Mrs. May Skelton, or Shelton, aged 48, who is said to be the divorced wife of a wealthy Chicago dealer in railway supplies, committed suicide last night at the Hotel Menlo by taking a dose of carbolic acid. John Turner, aged 28, who is said to be in the grocery business in Nashville, is a prisoner, having been arrested on suspicion of knowing more than he is willing to admit about the woman's death.

According to the clerk of the hotel, the dead woman and Turner have been living together at the hotel for some time and have had frequent quarrels. Yesterday he was away until late in the afternoon and they quarreled when he returned. The woman left the hotel, bought the acid and was found dying in an unoccupied room in the hotel later.

Mrs. Skelton is said to have returned to Chicago recently but came back on Saturday to rejoin Turner. It is said she obtained a divorce three months ago.

At the McKinley Home.

CANTON, O., Feb. 22.—Major McKinley did not leave the house yesterday. The weather was too rough for a drive or other outdoor exercise, even for one in robust health. Governor Bradley of Kentucky was the only stranger to cross the threshold and he spent the greater part of the day at the house. The newspaper correspondents stationed here are looking for the arrival of Colonel John J. McCook, a New York cabinet probability, on Tuesday.

This Story Comes From Canada.

MONTREAL, Feb. 22.—There has just arrived here from Rome a statue of St. Patrick, the right arm of which is said to contain the real bone of the right of the patron saint of Ireland. It has been sent by the order of the pope to add eclat to the golden jubilee of St. Patrick's parish here, which takes place this year.

Greater New York has 4,000,000 inhabitants and only one bridge across East river and none at all over the Hudson river.

RUSHING LEGISLATION

Congress Will Be Active From Now Until Adjournment.

ONLY A FEW MORE DAYS LEFT.

Appropriation Bills Will Be Considered First as All Other Measures Must Give Way to Them—Pet Schemes Will Be Pushed if an Opportunity Presents Itself—Program of the Week.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—Congress adjourns sine die a week from Thursday and the rush and jostling which marks the closing days of a session will begin this week. Members with pet measures, the passage of which have more or less bearing on their political fortunes, will begin their clamor for recognition, but they will appeal in vain as long as appropriation bills and conference reports are before the house for action, as these by the rules, have the right of way. Besides the house managers are anxious to put through with the least possible delay the last two budgets so that the decks may be cleared for the final struggle with the senate over the latter's amendments to the money bills. Speaker Reed and the house managers are using all their power and influence to keep down the appropriations to the lowest limit as they already promise to exceed those of the Fifty-first congress and the increases which the senate makes will be fought to the bitter end. The influence of this purpose to keep down appropriations to the minimum was apparent Saturday when the naval committee, after agreeing to recommend an appropriation for a new battle ship and a training ship for the Annapolis cadets, upon consultation with the leaders rescinded its action and decided to report the bill without any recommendation for an increase of the new navy.

The general deficiency bill, which has been under consideration for two days in the house, will be completed early in the week. An effort will be made to strike out the appropriation of $1,310,000 for the Southern Pacific, being the amount withheld by the government pending a determination of the liability of that road to the Union and Central roads. It probably will fail, however. The naval appropriation bill will follow. Owing to the controversy over the price to be paid for armor plate and the numerous accidents to the vessels of the new navy, this bill may lead to protracted discussion, but if it hangs fire until Friday it can be put through under suspension of the rules, as the last six days of the session are suspension days.

Conference reports probably will begin to appear with a rush before the middle of the week and be sandwiched in at every spare moment. It is likely that before the week is over the house will find the pressure for time so great that night sessions will be entered upon and the daily sessions may also be extended at the other end by fixing an earlier hour for meeting.

Two contested election cases still remain undisposed of and, as these are matters of the highest privilege, all else must give way if their consideration is insisted upon. But as both of them are unanimous reports (the committee's recommendation being in favor of the sitting member in the Watson-Black case and the Benoit-Bonheur case) they should not require much time for discussion.

The only measure of considerable further importance which seems to have a chance of running the gauntlet during the closing days is the senate joint resolution for an international monetary conference looking to the adoption of international bimetallicism. The resolution has been unanimously reported to the house and its friends are very anxious to have it passed. Speaker Reed is said to be friendly to it and a special order may be brought in for its consideration during the week. Little time, however, will be allowed to debate it, as the house has no time now to waste in a long financial debate over a resolution, the purpose and scope of which are well understood.

SENATE PROGRAM.

But Very Little Will Be Attempted Beyond Appropriation Legislation.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—It is expected that very little will be attempted in the senate beyond appropriation legislation during the week and it appears probable that most of the time will be given up to the Indian bill now in progress of consideration and the bill providing for appropriations for the District of Columbia, which will next be taken up. There are many provisions in the unconsidered portion of the Indian bill which will arouse debate, and the district bill never gets through the senate without elaborate discussion of its many provisions.

By the time these bills are out of the way in the senate the postoffice and sundry civil bills will be reported. Consequently there is no probability of a lack of material in the way of appropriation bills to proceed with.

Senator Sherman has announced his purpose not to again bring up the arbitration treaty for debate so long as the appropriation bills are pressing for consideration, but if there should be a lull in this work he may renew his efforts to secure ratification. There is no probability, however, that this result can be accomplished.

Senator Hoar is waiting anxiously to get up the bankruptcy bill. He said that he believed the senate could be brought to pass the bill after a few hours' debate if it could be gotten up.

INDICATIONS.—Threatening weather and rain; probably snow; easterly winds.

"J. E. SEARLES, Treasurer of the sugar trust, was a visitor to Major McKinley the past week to secure the appointment of an Attorney General that would render the law against such conspiracies a dead letter," says the Georgetown News-Democrat. "No single act of President Cleveland's administration, up to the time of the secret bond sale, did so much to disappoint the country and anger and alienate the mass of Democratic voters as did his appointment of Mr. Olney as Attorney General, and the too obvious insincerity and cynical indifference and impotency of the alleged prosecution of trusts under the Federal law. Mr. McKinley should learn from this example. He should view with just suspicion the recommendation of the monopoly magnates of any man for any position—most of all for Attorney General. He should guard the department of justice with jealous care from the paralyzing influence of those who would nullify the laws intended for their restraint and punishment."

Attention, Knights Templars.
 Maysville Commandery No. 10, K. T., will meet in regular convocation this Monday evening at 7 o'clock. The illustrious order of Red Cross will be conferred. Visiting fraters courteously invited.

CAPTAIN A. W. BREWER, a guard at the Frankfort penitentiary, was viciously assaulted by Henry Burse, a life prisoner, who took offense at some order given him by the guard. Burse used a knife, and cut Brewer on the arm, but was overpowered by other guards who came to Brewer's rescue. Brewer is from Lewis County.

CINCINNATI TOBACCO MARKET.

Increased Offerings Last Week and Prices Were Well Maintained—Prospects Favorable.

The Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company in its circular for the week has the following:

The tobacco market started on Tuesday with a large sale, as the receipts had been liberal and the shippers have found that a division of the sales into four days is an advantage to them, as well as the warehouses. It was a shade easier than it closed on Friday, the buyers being careless, and only upon certain grades the bidding was animated.

Old tobacco having color and body was in demand and good prices realized, but mediums and low grades were neglected and some easier. There was no really fancy tobacco offered, although there is a good demand for a few hog-heads of this kind of old tobacco.

Colored grades of the new crop sold at good figures, and anything fancy in the new crop sold well, but the dark and medium grades were not strong, and nondescripts and mixed grades were easier, but the day closed with some strength.

On Wednesday the houses were all full, and, while there was a carelessness at the beginning, as the sales advanced competition increased, and the day closed with a firmer demand for the new crop. Old goods remained about the same with the exception of a few good hog-heads that were advanced over the rejected prices of a few weeks ago.

The offerings on Thursday still continued large, and while we noticed very little change, some of the sellers were better satisfied and considered the market some higher.

Offerings on Friday were only moderate, and competition was greater, and the market closed stronger than on any day of the week. The sales for the four days amounted to 3,002 hhds.

There was considerable tobacco received from West Virginia, and good prices obtained for all that had any body and color, and several hog-heads sold from 10c. to 11c., but the crop so far is inferior to the old crop, as the wet weather last summer did not permit that oily substance to cover the leaf which Virginia tobacco usually has.

The receipts from Southern Kentucky have been quite liberal, and, while the crops are not as good as usual, prices have proved very satisfactory. One lot from Shelby County averaged over 10c. round.

The prospects are very favorable for a good market the coming week, as our readers are now in the market, and with their competition we can expect a stronger market.

The camel is a beast of great strength and endurance. Nothing hurts it until the proverbial "last straw" is added to its burden. The human digestive system is very much like a camel. It is really astonishing how much abuse it will stand. Sometimes however, something worse than usual will be eaten, and will go through the stomach into the bowels, and there it will stick—that's constipation. Nine-tenths of all human sickness is due to constipation. Some of the simplest symptoms are coated tongue and foul breath, dizziness, heartburn, flatulence, sallowiness, distress after eating, headaches and fastidious. A little thing will cause constipation, and a little thing will relieve it. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a certain cure for constipation. They are tiny sugar-coated granules, mild and natural in their action. There is nothing injurious about them. Sold by druggists.

REFORMS.

A Sample of the Kind Republicans Are Making in Kentucky.

Inspector Lester's Report on the Eddyville Pen—Everything at Loose Ends.

The Eddyville penitentiary was recently the subject of an investigation by State Inspector Lester, and a most disgraceful condition of affairs is disclosed in his official report to Gov. Bradley. Here are some extracts from the report which will afford the people of the State some idea as to the way things are run at this institution under Republican rule: "By reference to page 58, of the evidence, Mr. Happy being the witness, he says that he appointed certain guards at the instance of certain members of the Board of Commissioners. I beg to assure you that this statement was not called out by any specific question of mine. It came from him voluntarily, and appeared to me to be a studied effort on his part to remind the Commissioners of the fact that he had acted in that matter as they desired, and to remind them of favors shown them by him. . . .

"The arrangement adopted by him for placing Mr. Manning on the rolls, set forth by Mr. Happy on the same page, is to my mind one of the most pernicious that could be adopted. Its tendency is to cause the suspension of guards who do not have to contribute to the payment of Mr. Manning's wages upon frivolous pretexts, so as to make Manning earn as much as possible, and thereby lessen the assessment upon the eight guards of Capt. Happy's selection and upon Dr. Linn and Capt. Happy himself. Mr. Manning has not been on duty, as I learned while there, more than one-third of his time, yet he has regularly received full wages, less his one-fourteenth of what he had not earned.

"To sum up Capt. Happy's management I have to say that I saw no sign of reform in prison management made by him. I have carefully gone over the evidence since it was taken, and failed to find anything which shows that he has made a single reform or put into practice a single original idea or scheme for the good of the prison or credit of the State. On the contrary, he has been guilty of all the acts of negligence I have herein pointed out, besides many others shown by the evidence, and many others which will appear upon an examination of the monthly report of accounts made by the clerk of the prison, under his directions."

As a sample of Warden Happy's business methods Inspector Lester shows where he (Happy) had approved two bills each for $1,207 for one purchase of hay, and says if the matter isn't corrected the State will have to pay the same bill twice. The clerk, Mr. Canfield, seems to be a good sort of fellow, according to Mr. Lester, as the Inspector says: "He has been on the ground and has seen for ten months what I saw during the three weeks I was there. He has seen mismanagement and bad business methods going on each day during all that time. He has done his best to stay the tide of wastefulness and mismanagement around him.

Captain Goode, one of the guards, testified that the penitentiary reminded him of "Widow woman's farm," and the Inspector agrees with Goode.

Captain Goode, however, was accused by another guard of getting "staving, blind drunk." The Inspector tries to make things easy for Goode, however. He admits the evidence showed that Goode was drunk, but he didn't think he was "staving blind drunk."

Further along the Inspector takes another shot at the Warden. He says:

"The management under the present Warden is not at all satisfactory, and in my judgment deserves the severest criticism, if not condemnation of your Board of Commissioners. The prison stands on a considerable elevation. Its height, massive walls and barred windows, make it look very much like the impregnable castles of the feudal age. At a distance it is a magnificent looking and imposing structure, but a near approach shows its beauty and stateliness much marred by a want of care and air of neglect, everywhere observable. In front of the administration building between the walls and the street is a space of ground belonging to the State, which if cleaned off and set in grass would add much to the beauty of the place. As I found it, it is covered over with coal ashes from the building, and with chips of stone left by workmen in dressing stone for the building, and very much cut up into small gullies by rain water running down over it."

Most of the convicts have been idle nearly a year, but the Inspector says the Warden, with all these idle men, "has done nothing to improve or adorn the grounds."

It was also brought out that a negro convict sent up from Bell County, for rape, had been allowed by the Warden to go seven miles into the country, where he was arrested by the citizens and returned to the prison. This convict badly frightened a woman before he was arrested, and the Inspector says: "If at some lonely point on the way that day he had met and outraged some white woman I doubt seriously whether the walls of the penitentiary and its guards would have been able to protect him and Captain Happy from the fury of a mob that would have attempted to avenge the wrong. That he committed no such crime while out is not the fault of or result of any vigilance on the part of the Warden or Deputy Warden. They gave him the opportunity. The same convict was daily going at large from the prison to the upper part of the town of Eddyville when I was there. This I saw myself and know it to be true."

Evidence also brought out that other convicts had been seen drunk, and that the Warden and keeper of the prison supplies could not account for 379 pounds of beef received in August, September, October and November. In fact the Warden pays very little attention to the supplies.

The Inspector tells of two guards, one of them a brother of Warden Happy. He says he never saw these guards do anything "except play on a guitar, or sit in the Warden's office and read newspapers and write letters."

Speaking of the way the Warden allows the convicts to roam at large, Mr. Lester says: "It is true no theft, that I have heard of, has been committed by these convicts thus roaming at large, nor has any woman been outraged by them, but Captain Happy is entitled to no credit for this not happening. He has given them every opportunity to commit any crime known to the law, and if such a one should be perpetrated not only would Captain Happy be condemned by the people, but the entire administration of the prison would necessarily share in the odium. The depot at Eddyville is nearly or quite a mile from the prison. There is no one living immediately at or near it. Women frequently have to pass from the town to the depot and to Kuttawa, a town nearby. They are liable to be assaulted any day by some one of these convicts."

"Appended to this report will be found a list of the prisoners brought out from the penitentiary to the Commissioners' room a few nights after the election in November to furnish music and dancing for the entertainment given by Guard Franks. It will be seen from this list furnished by the clerk that several of these prisoners had then been in only a few months. Not long enough for Mr. Franks or any one else to know whether or not they were to be trusted in such a way. Besides that it seems to me that using convicts for the amusement or entertainment of guests (ladies and gentlemen) about a public institution such as this, is, to say the very least, of questionable propriety. The same can be said of the barber shop dances mentioned by several of the witnesses. I can not undertake to mention all the minute shortcomings of this sort brought out by the evidence."

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alternative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents per bottle at J. James Wood's drug store.

Important News of Wash Goods!

For making any gowns for hot-weather wear we have just opened a tasteful selection of specialties in Organdies, Dimities and Lawns, which cannot fail to please the shopper looking for something eye-pleasing and money-saving. Beginning Monday, continuing until Friday and for CASH only we offer the two following attractions:

FRENCH ORGANDIES,

In white and colored grounds, with buds, blossoms, clusters that would almost mislead a bee. Fashion has given a high rank to all transparent materials for the coming season and these filmy beauties lead the file. The regular tickets say 35c. a yard, and they are high class fabrics for that price, but as an introduction to the wash goods selling, for four days, beginning Monday, and for cash only, we will sell them for 25c. Must come in person. Samples not cut nor goods sent out on approval.

DIMITIES AND LAWNS,

Plain and corded, black, white and colored grounds, stripes, dots and floral designs, marked at cash selling for four days, 5c. a yard, after that back to the original price, 8½c. The most experienced shopper will pronounce them cheap at 8½c and wonder how and why 5c. selling can be done. Well perhaps we'd rather advertise our wash goods stock than cull profits for four days.

TO PURCHASERS

of the above next Friday's sale will be of special interest. Don't fail to read advertisement Thursday.

D. HUNT & SON.

R. B. LOVEL,

ENCOURAGED by my largely increased business of the past year, and in order to meet the largely increasing demands of my trade, I have taken advantage of the great depression in business throughout the country, which has been the cause of forcing large quantities of the most desirable goods in my line on the market at extremely low prices, and bought for cash the largest, cleanest and most attractive stock of goods ever offered to the people of this city. Therefore, I am in condition to offer to cash and prompt paying customers the greatest bargains ever offered to the trade and at the same time give them the very best class of goods. My stock consists of every article and much more than can be found in many strictly first-class houses in the country, consisting of Staple and Fancy Groceries and Canned Goods, best Sugar-cured Hams and Breakfast Bacon, Flour of various brands—Buckwheat Flour, Graham Flour, Entire Wheat Flour, Wheatless;

NOW FOR '97.

pure Maple Syrup, the best brands of Pickles, Solder's Catsup and Chili Sauce, pure Cream Cheese, Fruits, both green and dried, of all kinds; in fact, every article that can be named and at prices that knock out all competition. My house is headquarters for Poultry, Game and Oysters in season, always fresh and tempting, and when you want the best cakes and bread don't fail to buy my Perfection Flour.—It is always the best; and my Blend Coffee has no equal. Watch for my Specials, and don't fail to take advantage of them. I want country people when in our city to make my house headquarters; you are always welcome. And don't forget that I run two wagons regular and will deliver all goods promptly. If you can't come, telephone No. 83, and your wants will be attended to. Thanking all for the very liberal patronage of the past, I hope, by fair dealing and prompt and polite attention to the wants of the public, to merit a continuance of same.

The Quaker Crimped Crust Bread Pan

Gives more bread from a given amount of flour than any other pan. And it is sweeter, better bread—moist inside, rich brown outside, and never burnt. It can't burn. The steam in the pan won't let the bread burn. It is more nutritious, and will keep longer than any other bread without becoming stale.

WRECK ON C. AND O.

Fast Express From the East
Ditched Early This Morning.

Accident Occurred at Indian Run, Lewis County--Roadmaster Stout Killed.
Several Injured.

The C. and O.'s No. 1, the fast express train from the East, due in Maysville at 6:10 a. m., was wrecked at Indian Run early this morning.

The point where the accident occurred is between Stone City and South Portsmouth.

Full particulars of the wreck have not been received. It is known, however, that the engine and all the coaches except the two sleepers were ditched.

Several passengers were hurt, but the extent of their injuries has not been learned.

Roadmaster A. G. Stout happened to be on board the ill-fated train, and was killed in the wreck.

Mr. Stout's home was at Russell.

All the members of the crew were injured, except Conductor Fish.

The engine, No. 66, and the postal car were completely wrecked.

The accident has delayed all trains.
The wrecking crew from Covington passed up at 9:15 a. m. for the scene.

The accident was caused by a washout, resulting from the hard rain yesterday and last night. The rainfall, as stated elsewhere, amounted to 1.26 inches, being the heaviest for several months, and there were washouts at a number of other points. The eastbound train last night was about three hours late when it reached Maysville.

The L. and N. train due here at 8:30 p.
m. had a narrow escape from a serious accident Saturday night. At a point on the steep grade this side of Summit Station, some big rocks, loosened by the rain, had rolled down close to the track.
The engine passed in safety, but the obstruction tore the steps from one of the coaches, and the train would probably have been thrown from the track had it not been for the prompt action of the engineer in bringing it to a stop.

MAYSVILLE GETS IT.

The State Convention of the Y. M. C. A.
Next Year to Be Held In This City.

A dispatch from Frankfort says the Kentucky Y. M. C. A. convention on Saturday selected Maysville as the place of the State meeting next year. The convention at Frankfort closed Sunday afternoon with a grand mass meeting at the opera house in that city.

The following men were elected to membership on the State Executive Committee: Messrs. Jas. Edward Hardy,
John W. McGee, John L. Wheat, L. M.
Burford and George L. Burton, of Louisville; E. C. Baldwin and J. A. Stucky, of Lexington; Richard P. Ernst, of Covington, and E. S. Jouett, of Winchester. At a meeting of the State Executive Committee, the following officers were elected for 1897: James Edward Hardy, Chairman; John F. Lewis, Treasurer; Geo. L.
Burton, Recording Secretary.

The convention next year will bring between 200 and 300 delegates and visitors to Maysville, and will prove a big thing not only for the city but for the local association as well.

The Woman's Committee of the local
Y. M. C. A. will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the association parlor. A full attendance desired.

Notwithstanding the hard rain Sunday afternoon, there was a large attendance at the men's rally. Saburo Toyama, a Japanese graduate of the Ohio Wesleyan College, delivered a very interesting address on "Christianity, and Its Effect on Young Men in Japan." Mr. Toyama delivers a lecture at the M. E. Church to-night, illustrated with stereopticon views. All should hear him.

REV. I. J. SPENCER preached a very sensational sermon at Central Christian Church, Lexington, in which he took occasion to score Lexingtonians for their wickedness. His subject was "Getting Out of Sodom." In the course of the sermon he likened Lexington unto Sodom of old, saying: "I have lived in Baltimore, I have lived in Richmond, Va., I have lived in Louisville, and I have lived in various cities in the United States, but I have never in my life seen a city where the black waves of Sodom roll up as high as they do in Lexington."

to name the Senator, and Mr. Cook's friends who are putting him forward have assurances from the leading politicians in Scott and Woodford that his nomination will be very satisfactory to them and that he will have no opposition for the nomination. He is a brother

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida street, San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle of Dr.
King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in coughs and colds. Free

BOONE, RAILROAD BUILDER.

What the Mayor of Zanesville, O., Says of the "Pathfinder" and His Work.

A good deal has been published recently about Col. Albert E. Boone, the railway pathfinder, and his project to build a road from Columbus, O., to tidewater. Col. Boone lives at Zanesville, O.
A few days ago Mayor Newman, of Ashland, wrote to the Mayor of Zanesville to find out just what kind of a man Boone is. Here is the reply:

ZANESVILLE, O., Feb. 17, 1897.
Hon. T. S. Newman, Ashland, Ky.--Entered Sir:
Replying to your letter of February 10th, 1897, permit me to say I have known Col. Boone for a dozen or more years, during which time I have occupied the following positions in this city:
Councilman, Secretary Board of Trade, and Mayor.

During all my acquaintance with Col. Boone I have the first time to find him other than frank, manly, truthful and honorable. I personally look on Boone as a remarkable man, and especially so as to his ability to promote railroad interests. Col. Boone has done much for our city, "Zanesville," and the Muskingum Valley.
He has given us railroads that others said could not be done. The Z. and O. railroad and the Bell Line are living monuments attesting to Boone's ability. In a manner and to a degree, greater and better than any words of mine can express.

While Boone is a liberal liver, he is equally liberal in all his railroad work.
Personally, I have never yet met the man who I thought was Col. Boone's equal in the work of promoting railroad enterprises. Very respectfully,
WM. S. BELL, Mayor,
Zanesville, O.

The BULLETIN has already published articles concerning Col. Boone's project known as the Columbus, Ohio river and Tidewater Railway. Here's a letter received some days ago from him:

ZANESVILLE, O., Feb. 15, 1897.
Editor of The Bulletin, Maysville, Ky.--Sir: Whilst the Pittsburg, Cadiz and Ohio will abandon its line between Athens and Aberdeen no change will be made to change the route of the "Ohio River Division" of the Columbus, Ohio River and Tidewater which will be built, if I can get the free right of way, from Columbus via West Union to Aberdeen, O., opposite Maysville, Ky.
My road will want to help bridge the Ohio and it can be done if your people will do their duty, which I am satisfied they will, when they see a new railroad in sight. Respectfully, ALBERT E. BOONE.

WAR AT MANCHESTER.

It's Being Waged Against Disreputable Characters--They Are Making Themselves Scarce.

West Union Defender: "The atmosphere of the village of Manchester is receiving such a fumigation as it never has experienced before, for the reason perhaps that it was never more needed than now. As a result persons in that village who have been living in open adultery have either righted the wrongs they have been committing, by giving themselves in marriage, or else have faced the edict of the court and been sent to jail.

"Since the beginning of the war on immorality by the officials of Manchester it is said that the disreputable characters are making themselves scarce and many are fleeing from the town.
The Mayor says that he is determined in his movement against immorality, and the atmosphere of Manchester will take on a degree of purification if all the warrants that are said to be in existence are served."

Assassin Made Sure of His Work.

LEBANON, Mo., Feb. 22.—Joseph Worley, a farmer, who lived two and a half miles from Eldredge, was murdered near his barn Saturday night. His assailant, who appears to have laid in ambush, fired a charge of buckshot into Worley's side. The man fell, fatally wounded, but in order to make sure of his work the assassin seems to have deliberately driven a large wire nail into his victim's brain. There is no clew to the murderer. It is thought Worley was shot as he entered the barn.

The recent eclipse of the sun was not much of a show or a great success. There will be, however, another one in the summer that will be visible all over the United States. It will come July 29, and will be of the form called annular. That is to say, the sun will appear as a ring of light around and outside of the black body of the moon.

HANNA WILL SUCCEED SHERMAN.
Governor Bushnell Makes Public What He Intends to Do.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 22.—Governor Bushnell last night gave out the following statement to the press:

"It had been my intention to make no announcement in relation to the action I would take in the matter of an appointment to fill the prospective vacancy in the Ohio representation in the United States senate until the vacancy actually existed. But on account of the manifest interest of the people and their desire to know what will be done, I deem it best now to make the following statement:

MARCUS A. HANNA.

"When Senator Sherman resigns to enter the cabinet of President McKinley, I will appoint to succeed him Hon. Marcus A. Hanna of Cuyahoga county to serve until his successor is chosen by the Seventy-third general assembly of the state. I trust this action will meet with the approval of the people."

Hanna Has Nothing to Say.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 22.—Chairman Hanna was at the Union club yesterday evening, when he was shown the Associated Press dispatch from Columbus, containing Governor Bushnell's announcement of Mr. Hanna's appointment as senator to succeed Mr. Sherman. This was the first information Mr. Hanna had on the subject. Of course he was pleased at the termination of the controversy, but he showed his pleasure only by a genial smile. When asked if he would discuss the governor's action the chairman declined to say anything, remarking that he could not talk about the matter for publication until he had received official notification of his appointment from Governor Bushnell. Mr. Hanna remained at the club during the evening and there received the congratulations of such of his friends as had heard of his appointment.

PENITENTIARY WELL GUARDED.

Cabalistic Chalk Figures Which Aroused Suspicion.

SANTA FE, N. M., Feb. 22.—Governor Thornton has placed the local company of infantry on guard at the penitentiary on account of the discovery of a plot to blow up the building by a party of friends of the four members of the Borrego gang of assassins who were condemned to be hanged next Tuesday but have been granted a respite for 80 days by President Cleveland.

Another ominous feature of the trouble is the appearance of the cabalistic chalk figures, "B-302-40," on the pavements and on the doors of officials' houses, which the knowing ones describe as similar to the call for meetings of the secret button gang, which appeared frequently in 1892, just prior to the assassination of ex-Sheriff Frank Chavez.

A Chinese Superstition.

The strange unwillingness of the Chinese to afford help to a drowning man, or any one in absolute peril of his life otherwise, is based upon a belief that the ghost of the last man killed always acts as "watchman" of the hades or purgatory into which, according to Chinese belief, the spirit of the departed first enters, and from which he can only be relieved by the arrival of a fresh ghost. If, therefore, a man's life be saved from accidental death, the spirit of the person who died immediately before him is, in a manner, cheated out of his relief, and will assuredly haunt the person whose misplaced humanity has condemned it to a fresh term of dismal servitude. This belief also obtains among the highlanders of Scotland.—Exchange.

"Mother's Friend"

prepares the system for the change taking place, assists Nature to make child-birth easy and leaves her in a condition more favorable to speedy recovery. It greatly diminishes the danger to life of both mother and child. "My wife suffered more in ten minutes with either of her other two children than she did altogether with her last, having previously used four bottles of 'Mother's Friend.' It is a blessing to anyone expecting to become a mother, says a customer, F. H. HANCOCK, DALLAS, TEX. Sent by Mail, on receipt of price, 10c PER BOTTLE. Book 'To Expectant Mothers' mailed free.
